Family Members,

Fall has arrived and along with that we have a fun announcement. Family members of residents and staff are invited to take part in a Halloween parade.

Saturday, October 31st gather at 3:45, parade at 4:00pm meet in the B/C Courtyard (near the gazebo)

Facemasks are required, and costumes are highly encouraged; we will walk around the facility and wave at resident’s windows as we go by. Candy bags will be handed out at the end of the parade.

We also want to make you aware that the scheduled visitation in the gazebo has been move to Monday, October 12th for next week. Please contact the residents case manager if you wish to schedule a visit.

Regarding COVID-19, we have been notified of one positive employee. A notification will be sent out if we are made aware of additional positive results. The COVID-19 positive case count is at 8 in Ransom County as of this date. COVID-19 testing for residents and staff has been scheduled for the remaining Wednesdays in October.
