Family Members,

We are happy to share that we remain COVID-19 free. It has been a joy seeing residents reuniting with their visitors. Thank you to all for using our online booking tool or reaching out to case managers to schedule visits. As we mentioned last week, you have the option to take your loved one out of the building for an outing, please call the nurses station to make them aware of your plans. Updates that have been shared over the last couple of weeks remain in place.

Enjoy the beautiful summer weather this weekend! Please do not hesitate to contact us if you have any questions.
